Building a Better Future with Sustainable Practices

Sustainability is not just about compliance with regulations; it's about actively giving back to the environment and the communities we serve through purpose-driven, responsible operations.

So far, we've:

- Achieved significant reductions in greenhouse gas emissions and energy consumption
- Implemented a strategy to minimize water usage
- Diverted incinerable hazardous waste from landfilling and recycled nearly 100% of non-hazardous waste
- Promoted a healthy environment through active afforestation efforts
- Invested in initiatives to uplift our communities
- Enhanced diversity in our workforce, which now includes 20% women
- Maintained employee safety and customer satisfaction with rigorous training
- Safeguarded our employees' rights and data privacy
- Assessed the sustainability of our supply chain management practices
- Adopted new technologies and automated processes to improve safety and product quality
- Received an Ecovadis score of 65 for 2025

At Piramal, we are committed to reducing emissions, conserving resources, and preserving the planet. We also strive to align with partners who share our vision for an ethical and sustainable supply chain.
